

Canyoning

2004 season

The mission of this adventure is to go down the Dunbar River in the St. Mauricie reserve using ropes and to come back by rock climbing its sides. A warm-up walk of 1 km will take our adventurers to one of the most popular sites of the St. Mauricie reserve. During their descent, they will face various falls and canyons up to 10 meters, and go down a small canyon to reach their goal. After 2 km of descent, they will return using rock climbing techniques taught by our instructors.

This package is a challenge to all adrenalin adepts and a unique experience in these grandiose isolated landscapes. Only a few hikers discover them each year.
