

Rafting

2004 season

Rafting is offered through three activity programs: family, discovery and adventure. These programs were developed primarily to meet the new market demand for adventure a little less challenging.

Adventure rafting

With this program, designed for thrill enthusiasts, adventurers spend a day outdoors and live the adventure of a lifetime in a highly safe setting. If you crave an adventure reserved to the most experienced adventurers, this program is what you need.

Rafting

2004 season

Family rafting

Designed for parents wishing to share the rafting experience with their children or for adults looking for a less challenging activity, this program was created for a clientele of 6 years and up. You will navigate on calm waters and in small rapids. This new program is ideal to live a slow-paced adventure as well as to discover the Quebec riverbanks and forest wilderness.

Discovery rafting

This is an ideal program for adventurers wishing to discover Quebec's nature and fauna. It combines a day of rafting (family or adventure) and hiking. A fauna interpretation specialist will guide you through the wonderful panorama of the Mattawin River valleys.
